

Robert Kemper

1200 Brickell Ave., Suite 750, Miami, FL 33131 | (305) 925-9947 | rkemper@sfl-law.com

Robert Kemper is an Associate Attorney at Sanchez Fischer Levine, LLP, based out of the firm's Miami Office. His practice is focused on complex commercial litigation, international arbitration, and appeals.

He received his J.D. from Florida International University School of Law in 2022. Robert was a top-performer in law school and served as a contributing editor to the Florida International University Law Review. Prior to joining Sanchez Fischer Levine as an attorney, Robert served as a Judicial Intern for the District Court of the Southern District of Florida and as a Research Assistant to Professor Thomas E. Baker.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Litigation
- Civil Litigation
- Appeals

ADMISSIONS

- Florida

EDUCATION

- J.D., summa cum laude, Florida International University College of Law
 - Senior Staff Member, FIU Law Review
- B.A., summa cum laude, Philosophy, Florida Atlantic University

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

PUBLICATIONS & SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- Author, Recognizing a Fundamental Right to a Clean Environment: Why the Juliana Court Got It Wrong and How to Address the Issue Moving Forward, 16 FIU L. Rev. 457 (2022).